Tess was a wonderful teaching fellow. She lead a very efficient section helping to clarify key terms and really encouraged participation by all students in section. I also really appreciated her willingness to talk during her office hours about anything interesting us, readily answering any e-mailed questions, and guiding my project team through statistical analyses.

Tess is so dedicated to ensuring the well-being of her students. She went above and beyond in facilitating discussion and providing explanation in section. She was ready to meet with you if you needed to speak with her. Tess was so helpful when we were crafting our project. We didn't have a lot of statistics background, so it was very helpful to have her to refer to with questions.

Tess is the best TF in the Gov department, if not the entire school -- she should definitely be recognized for her amazing teaching skills as well as her enthusiasm.

Her bubbly personality creates a lot of excitement about the material and the outlines she drew up and overviews of lecture facilitated great discussion.
