Tess is hands down one of the best TF's at Harvard I've ever come across! She understand the material very well, and more importantly, is able to convey the most important points and lessons across. She makes it exactly clear what we need to know and makes it a point to ensure that everyone knows that. She also generates a lot of enthusiasm and encourages a lot of participation in section, which makes section seem ten times better than lecture at times. Tess is wonderful and I don't see this course working without her.
