Tess was honestly the best TF I've had in any class at Harvard. Her input on the final project was invaluable. She is clearly very passionate about the subject matter and has a wealth of knowledge. She made sure that sections were driven by discussion. Sections were definitely improved by ideas like debates and other discussion tactics. All around great job!

One of the best TFs I have ever had. Sometimes, she had trouble facilitating discussions due to the lack of interest from some of the students. Nonetheless, she was extremely supportive of the students who went to her outside class, particularly with helping them on their research projects. I am extremely thankful!

Great TF

Tess is a good TF. She is very engaged and tries hard to generate enthusiasm and conversation in section. She is very open to hearing different sides of an argument and does a good job of connecting section to the themes in lecture.

Tess is absolutely incredible! I loved her enthusiasm and engagement with the material throughout the semester. Tess was great at facilitating discussion -- she always made people feel comfortable with sharing, which can be really difficult in a course with sensitive subject matter like race. She always made herself available, and never made anybody feel like they were burdening her by asking questions or stopping by her office hours. She is amazing!
